

Mike Adenuga (Profile)

Founder, Globacom Ltd & Chairman, Conoil Plc

Michael Adeniyi Agbolade Ishola Adenuga Jr is a self-made Nigerian entrepreneur and philanthropist, and holds the prestigious title of the 'Second richest man in Nigeria', with a personal fortune of US $5.2 billion. He has extensive investments in the aviation, telecommunications, oil and gas, banking, and real estate sectors. Interestingly, very aware of how Nigeria's political elite can influence the country's business environment, Adenuga has remained conspicuously absent from any participation in Nigerian politics.

This profile incorporates indicative asset and relationship maps.
