

Sarah Al Suhaimi (Profile)

Chairperson, Tadawul

Although the coverage given to Sarah Al Suhaimi focuses on her status as a prominent woman in a male dominated society, her political exposure and business interests are what really matter to international investors. She spearheads the Saudi stock exchange, known as the Tadawul, and is thus set to be an integral component of Saudi's private sector development in the years ahead. But what clout does she have in her position, and is her ability to make decisions complicated by other factors?

Included with a personality profile are graphics showing her corporate interests.
